A. Copy of Open Meetings Act: The Gretna Library Board makes available at least one current copy of the Open Meetings Act posted in the meeting room at a location accessible to members of the public. The Act is posted on the east wall of the meeting room.

B. The Gretna Library Board reserves the right to go into executive session/closed session for one or both of the following reasons according to Nebraska State Law: to protect public interest or to prevent needless injury to a staff member's reputation.

C. Instructions for those who wish to speak during the public comment forum:

Getting Started: When it is your turn to speak during the public comment portion of the agenda, please stand up/come forward and state your name to the Gretna Library Board.

Time Limit: You may speak only once on any of the current business items and must limit comments to 3 minutes or less. If you would like to speak about a matter or issue not on the agenda, please notify the Gretna Library Board in advance, so that there is time to place the issue on a future agenda.

General Rules: Please remember that this is a public meeting for the conduct of the business of the Gretna Library Board. Offensive language, personal attacks and hostile conduct will not be tolerated.
